```
C      Am Dm           G7        C
 Love is      the sweet-est thing
C      Am       Dm          G7           C
What else on earth could ev-er bring
C    C7       F          Dm        Am
Such hap-  pi--ness to ev-'ry-thing,
     D7         Dm G7
As love's old   sto--ry
C      Am Dm            G7          C
Love is          the strang-est thing,
      Am      Dm         G7         C
No song of birds up-on    the wing
         C7      F              Dm      Am
Shall in our hearts more sweet-ly sing
        D7        G7 C
Than love's old sto-ry.
```
Am                Em             A7  Dm
   What ev-er hearts may de-sire
           G7        C
What ev-er fate may send
     F     E7       Am
This is the tale that ne-ver will tire
 D7                       Dm  G7
This is the song without end.
```

 C   Am Dm            G7         C
Love is         the strang-est thing,
    Am      Dm         G7            C
No song of birds up-on     the wing
     C7      F              Dm          Am
Shall in our hearts more sweet-  ly sing
       D7        G7 C
Than love's old sto-  ry.

  Am              Em              A7  Dm
    What ev-er hearts may de-sire
                 G7        C
What ev-er fate may send
      F    E7        Am
This is the tale that ne-ver will tire
  D7                      Dm  G7
This is the song without end.

  C        Am  Dm        G7          C
    Love is      the great-  est thing,
      Am    Dm        G7
The old- est yet the lat-  est thing
C C7      F          Dm            STOP
I  on-  ly hope that fate may bring
C        D7      G7 C
Love's sto- ry   to you.
